

NEWTON HARRELL
Newton Harrell, cattleman of Claude, Monday was elected president of the state teachers colleges board of regents at a meeting held in Austin.

Harrell will succeed William L. Kerr of Midland. He and other officers were elected for a 1-year term in a closed meeting.

In Austin for a 2-day session, the board is considering employment contracts for faculty and staff members of the seven teachers colleges, Kerr said. It adopted formal rules and regulations governing the board.

Harrell is a former student of West Texas State College and a graduate of the University of Oregon. He is a director of the South-west Cattle Raisers Association and director of the First National Bank in Canyon.

Walter F. Woodul of Houston, former Lieutenant Governor of the state, was named vice-president. Woodul is a graduate of the University of Texas.

Former State Senator Claude Isbell was renamed executive secretary of the board.

Dr. Pat Neff To Address Grads at Commencement

Commencement week at West Texas State College will begin May 26 and climax with graduation exercises on June 2, college officials announced this week.

The Honorable Pat M. Neff will deliver the commencement address. Rev. H. I. Robinson, pastor of the First Methodist Church in Lubbock, will give the baccalaureate sermon.

Senior Class Day activities will start the week with an assembly program on May 26. The annual President's reception to the Senior Class will be given Saturday, May 28 at 8:30 p. m. A concert by the WT Buffalo Band will be performed Tuesday, May 31 at an outdoor site.

Final examinations are scheduled for May 30, 31 and June 1. The baccalaureate exercises are to be on Sunday, May 29 at 11 a. m. Commencement exercises are scheduled for 10 a. m. Thursday, June 2.

Commencement exercises for the WT Demonstration High School will be on the evening of Wednesday, June 1.

Wow! The Newsmen Pictured as Being 100 Years of Age!

Sometimes the Newsmen feels like it, but here comes a newspaper stating in cold, cruel type that he has served as secretary of the Panhandle Press Association "for more than a century."

This statement is published in bold type right in the middle of the latest issue of The Publishers' Auxiliary, the newspaperman's weekly, which goes into every newspaper office in the nation.

The reaction: Well, we have been hearing about this "century" business from widely separated places over the nation.

The results: Perhaps we shall have a lot of calls from younger men who wish to relieve us of the job of publishing The News.

The satisfaction: There are other newspapers which make as serious errors at times as we make here at the News office. Type plays peculiar pranks at times, and says the wrong thing in spite of the care taken.

Directors of the Chamber Glance at Progress Made

Directors of the Canyon Chamber of Commerce held the monthly meeting Thursday night.

The directors received a report on plans for the Treasure Hunt to be staged in the Palo Duro State Park, starting May 28. Mrs. C. O. Elkins had agreed to sponsor the sale of Booster Memberships, and to see all business firms regarding gifts to be awarded during the Treasure Hunt.

Arrival of the new street markers is expected about the latter part of May. These markers will be erected by the city's street maintenance crew as rapidly as possible on arrival.

All directors of the Chamber have taken Booster Club memberships, and recommend their purchase by all citizens of Randall county.

It was pointed out that firms which do not have merchandise to give away in the Hunt may give cash which will be used in the advertising campaign and to buy some of the major prizes which will be offered during the summer.

Directors asked for a little more time to consider the advisability of sponsoring the 60th anniversary of Canyon in the Palo Duro State Park in July. When the 50th anniversary was staged in Canyon 10 years ago more than 15,000 citizens of the Panhandle participated. If staged in the Park, the 60th anniversary will be on a smaller scale.

Citizens who are interested in such a project are asked to write to the News at once, giving their opinion. It will take a lot of time and a considerable amount of money to stage such a celebration.

Elmer Wooten, chairman of the playgrounds committee, hopes that his committee will be able to make recommendations regarding the expansion of the wayside park south of Canyon on Highway 87. This project has been under consideration for some time and some progress has been made. Securing a playground within easy access to Canyon will be the next major project of the Chamber of Commerce for 1949.

Senior Class of WT High Will Present Play Thursday Nite

The popular Broadway hit, "Howdy Stranger," will be presented by the Junior Class of West Texas High School Thursday evening, May 5, in the Education Auditorium, with the curtain going up at 8:15. Admission is 60c.

"Howdy Stranger," is, according to dramatic critics, a comedy that has "everything," a good plot, colorful characters, an appealing setting—and almost a laugh a minute.

Amazing complications arise from such hilarious situations as that of a New Yorker, a dude ranch guest with an inherited annual phobia, being swept by a high-powered theatrical promoter, into the career of cowboy singer for radio. "Elly" (Troy Thurman) clings fast in radio until he has to ride a horse in a rodeo at Madison Square Garden.

Incidentally, a real horse (an experienced show horse has been engaged for the occasion) is to appear on the stage in the production—another first for W. T.!

Mrs. Thelma Fulton To Give Her Senior Recital on May 12

Mrs. H. R. Fulton, Jr., Senior at West Texas State College, will present her Senior Song Recital on Thursday, May 12 in the Education Auditorium at 8:15 o'clock p. m. She will be accompanied by Miss Ellen Sanders, pianist.

The program is a culmination of the work accomplished since she entered the school. Among others, the program will include songs of Handel, Brahms, a song cycle by Schumann, the aria, "One Fine Day," from "Madame Butterfly" by Puccini, and several modern songs.

Graveside Funeral For Infant Monday

Laura June Smith was still-born to Mr. and Mrs. Dan Smith of Tulsa Sunday.

A graveside funeral was conducted Monday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock, at Dreamland Cemetery in charge of Griggs-Warren Funeral Home.

Survivors are the parents: two sisters, Donna Charlotte and Karen Anna; and the grand parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Leavitt and Mr. and Mrs. Carl W. Smith.

Wheat Outlook Has Never Been More Promising

Canyon received another rain Wednesday night, which measured .23 of an inch.

Rain to the south was heavier, but it was considerably lighter to the north.

The wheat crop has never looked so good as it does in the Panhandle right now. The crop is well advanced, and the weather day by day has never been more favorable.

Farmers predict that with continued favorable weather cutting will start between June 1 and 10th. The dry winds of this week have been just what the wheat men need. There will be no rust so long as the wind continues to blow from the Southwest daily.

Moisture so far this year measures 7.07 inches.

Cattle Brands To Be Subject for Society Banquet

Hon. C. Stanley Banks of San Antonio will be the guest speaker at the annual Panhandle-Plains Historical Society meeting on May 13 and 14, announced David M. Warren, president from Panhandle.

He will speak on "Texas Cattle Brands." An authority on Texas lands and cattle, his address promises to be of special interest to Plains people, said Mr. Warren.

Winners of awards in the Vandale Historical Essay Contest will be announced at the annual banquet at the West Texas State College cafeteria on Friday night, May 13. A large crowd is expected to attend the 28th meeting of the society. Reservations for the banquet should be made early, emphasized Warren. They may be made by writing Dr. L. F. Sheffy, secretary, Canyon.

Anyone interested may attend the banquet as attendance is not restricted to members.

Open House Baptist Home on Sunday and the Week Following

The First Baptist Church of Canyon, and Pastor and Mrs. Roy L. Johnson, are holding "open house" at the new pastorium Sunday afternoon from 3:00 to 5:00 o'clock, and each evening next week, May 9-13, from 7:00 to 8:00 p. m.

A dedication service to be held in the church auditorium Sunday afternoon at 2:15, with Pastor C. G. Sewell of Tulsa bringing a brief message. The public is invited.

This new home for pastors of First Baptist Church is located at 1717 Third Avenue, and is a cream-colored brick veneer with green asbestos shingle roof. The 8-room house has been designed especially for a pastor's use, and its four bed rooms and other facilities make it one of the best such homes in this region. The congregation and pastor express pride at being able to present the home for public inspection.

Convention Had Study of Roads And Airports

Judge Burney Slack and Commissioners Pat Baber and Chas. Y. Johnson returned Saturday from the convention of County Judges and Brownwood.

Two problems seem to trouble all of the counties of Texas: What to do about farm-to-market roads; and what to do about municipal airports. Judge Slack states that counties are called upon to furnish right-of-ways and set back fences along all farm-to-market roads. If a considerable amount of such roads are built, counties will probably be called upon for more money than is available, and bond issues will be necessary.

A member of the State Highway Commission stated that money available for farm-to-market roads would be allotted on a prorata basis between the counties, and that it would be payable in monthly installments to the counties of the state.

It is likely that a bond issue will be necessary in Randall county as the road and bridge fund is not large enough for any large amount of farm-to-market construction.

The question of airports seemed to bring out a lot of dissenting opinions. Most of the commissioners with whom Mr. Baber talked were of the opinion that airports are expensive for small counties, and that they should not be operated by the counties.

A plan is underway for the airport in Canyon to be taken over by West Texas State for student training. This question has brought out a varied number of opinions including the legality under the present laws. A bill is pending to make such an airport legal, but has not been acted upon by the legislature.

Canyon has the airport land, but Mr. Baber wanted to find out what to do with the land. He got no definite information at the State Convention.

Bill Cone Changes Jobs on Ochiltree County Herald

C. E. "Bill" Cone has been transferred from advertising manager of the Ochiltree County Herald, Perryton, to regional news manager. Bill will be the staff photographer, develop and engrave his own pictures. He will have charge of the correspondents of the Herald for the area.

Bill is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Cone of Canyon. He was editor of The Eagles Tale and of The Prairie while in school in Canyon. He has had wide experience in various newspaper fields since leaving college. It will be recalled that his wife recently died following birth of a son.

Van W. Stewart, owner of the Herald, is planning to change from a weekly to a semi-weekly, and perhaps a daily in the near future if the new oil field continues to develop.

School Man Brought Back Loot Taken by Visiting Pupils

A school man brought back to Canyon Friday a sack of loot which had been taken recently by his pupils while attending a conference in Canyon.

This is the second instance in which pupils have been forced to give up loot which they had taken from local stores.

Kids will be kids, especially when away from home. Canyon merchants are advised to be on the alert when large crowds of visitors come into their stores.

Dr. Hill Speaks to P-TA on Finding Permanent Values

At the regular Parent and Teacher Association meeting on April 21 Dr. J. A. Hill gave the invocation.

During the business session Mrs. W. E. Miller and Mrs. Ed Harrell were elected representatives of the Canyon Unit to the District meet at Shamrock on April 27-28.

Mrs. Lee Foster was in charge of the program.

Special music was a piano duo by Sarah Jane and Virgil Martin.

Dr. Hill as guest speaker discussed "Finding Permanent Values Through Home and School."

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Lair, Mr. and Mrs. J. Murphy White and Miss Mayme Shaver visited over the week end with Mr. and Mrs. Herb Brillhart in Perryton.

Three Men Taken After Looting The Buffalo Drug

Drug stores in Canyon, Happy, Silverton and Tulsa were raided Friday night by three men who were arrested following the burglaries.

Eugene Webb of Amarillo made bond Monday; Osby James and J. D. Taylor of Lubbock are in jail in Tulsa, all charged with pulling the job.

The three broke into the Buffalo Drug in Canyon, taking about $300 worth of merchandise, including fountain pens, cigars, and a camera. All three have served sentences. They have been under suspicion of several other jobs in Lubbock and Amarillo. They were arrested in Amarillo early Saturday morning. Only the loot taken from a Silverton drug store was in the car at the time.

Name of West Texas Changed By Legislature

A bill has been passed by the legislature which changes the name of West Texas State.

The college was created in 1909 as the West Texas State Normal College. Several years ago the name "Normal" was changed to "Teachers" College. There has been decided opinion throughout the past years to officially change the name to West Texas State College, dropping the word "Teachers" from the title. The shorter title has been unofficially adopted, but the official name has always remained "West Texas State College."

A provision in the bill is that it shall remain under the Board of Regents for Teachers Colleges.

A bill is pending in the Senate to change the name of North Texas State at Denton, dropping the name "Teachers" and creating a separate Board of Regents on the grounds that the institution is now the fourth largest college in Texas, and is much larger than any of the other six colleges which have been official "teachers" colleges in the past.

Day of Grace Is Given For Sale of Barbecue Tickets

An urgent wire from Lubbock asks that all tickets assigned for Randall county Democrats be sold at once, and one more day was given for the sale.

The deadline is now Thursday, May 5.

So far no tickets have been sold from Randall county for the $10 per plate barbecue.

"Please request large contributions from grain dealers, implement dealers, farmers and cattlemen, as well as others," stated a telegram received by Clyde Warwick Friday.

So far no tickets have been sold in Randall county and no contributions received, according to Warwick.

Vernon Boosters on Visit to Canyon at Early Saturday Hour

In spite of the fact that the Vernon delegation visited Canyon at 7:30 o'clock Saturday morning, there was a good crowd on the public square to welcome the visitors.

The 80-car caravan had spent the night in Amarillo, but pulled into Canyon promptly on time. A breakdown in the loud speaker caused the program to be cut a little short in Canyon, but the local people were thoroughly entertained by the visitors.

The group was welcomed by Clyde Warwick, president of the Chamber of Commerce.

Hershey Williams Is In Charge of the City Water Plant

George Gidden resigned as water superintendent Saturday and was replaced by Hershey Williams. Mr. Williams recently moved back to Canyon after living in Happy for two years.

Roy Franklin was added to the street force and will look after garbage disposal under the new city ordinance which became effective on May 1.

Jack Neil Cooper left Monday to visit Mr. and Mrs. Stan Hall in Los Angeles and to attend to business there. Mrs. Hall is his sister.

Prizes Sought From Firms Park Treasure Hunt Start May 28

Plans are rapidly developing for the official opening of the Palo Duro State Park on May 28.

John McCarty, in charge of the publicity for the Park, was here Tuesday checking up on plans. "After a careful check of the Park, I find conditions much more favorable than I had anticipated," stated McCarty.

Officials of the State Parks Board will be here in a few days to check on the Park and to give all of the aid possible to put over the big opening event.

A proof of the gold coins to be dropped by plane over the park area has been received. It is an attractive coin, and will easily be seen by those who start hunting. All coins will be numbered, and holders of the lucky numbers will draw fine prizes.

Mrs. C. O. Elkins is in charge of the Booster Membership cards and soliciting merchandise prizes to be given by local business and professional firms and men to the lucky persons finding the coins.

It is hoped that each and every business firm in Canyon will contribute prizes to this fund.

Booster membership cards are on sale at $1.00 each. All of this money goes into the advertising fund for the campaign.

A billboard firm has started work erecting a series of attractive boards along the highways, which will attract the tourist business to the Palo Duro during the summer.

Upchurch Goes to Wheat Conclave Held at Omaha

W. H. Upchurch left Sunday afternoon to attend the Western States wheat conference at Omaha, Nebraska on the Third.

Other delegates from the Panhandle attending are Carl Kuper of Dalhart and R. C. Buckles of Stratford.

The meeting at Omaha will undertake to agree on recommendations to be made in regard to the Farm program for wheat.

The Texas delegation has been invited to appear before the Wheat Sub-committee of the House Agricultural Committee in hearings being held in Washington on the 5th and 6th.

They expected to go to Washington from Omaha on Wednesday the Fourth and return home on next Sunday.

Life of Young Girl Is Saved By Quick Action of Youth

A high school boy's quick thinking application of first-aid training Friday afternoon saved the life of a schoolmate.

Carlene Rogers, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Rogers of Canyon was bitten by a rattlesnake about 2:30 o'clock while she was with a group of Canyon High School students on a picnic in Palo Duro Canyon. Some 400 youngsters were on the outing and Carlene and a small party were climbing to the top of the canyon when a boy in the group stepped on the snake. The reptile bit Carlene.

While Tommy Gooch, another student, ran back to the canyon to summon aid, Donald McDonald slit the wound and sucked poison from the bite. Later he helped carry Carlene back down the hill to a car which took her to Neblett Hospital, Canyon.

Doctors administered serum. They said yesterday the girl is recovering and they give major credit to the emergency treatment administered by Donald.

He is the 15 year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Bryan McDonald of Canyon.

Property Owners Asked to Render 1949 School Tax

Property owners in the Canyon Independent School District are requested by Lee Foster to come to the office of the school in the court house and render property for 1949 taxes.

Mr. Foster states that he has been over the district, but found so few property owners at home. He is trying to finish up rendition and get ready for the next board of equalization.

AAUW To Honor Girl Graduates of Two Schools

Girls who are graduating from the Canyon High School and West Texas State College Demonstration School will be honored guests of the American Association of University Women on May 9. The reception will be held at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Ples Harper, 2617 Fifth Avenue, at 8 o'clock.

Dr. J. A. Hill Withdraws from Governor's Race

Dr. J. A. Hill withdrew Saturday as a candidate for District Governor of the 127th District of Texas.

His letter of withdrawal was directed to Dr. R. A. Neblett, president of the Canyon Rotary Club, and Clyde Warwick, campaign manager for the club. A copy of the letter was forwarded to District Governor Ira Woods of Littlefield and Elmo Wasson of Big Spring, candidate for the same job.

Since retiring as president of West Texas State in September of last year, Mr. Hill has been on a very strenuous schedule. He was away from home when the nomination was made for his election. He was not aware at the time that Mr. Wasson was a candidate and had visited a number of clubs in his campaign.

A member of the Big Spring Rotary Club came to Canyon last week harmony one of the candidates and requested that for the sake of should withdraw. He stated that in face of the fact that Mr. Wasson was in the race early and had done much work toward his candidacy that Dr. Hill wait for another year before becoming a candidate for the office.

Dr. Ira Woods, District Governor, stated that he regretted that Mr. Hill thought best to withdraw from the race, but highly appreciated the high motive of his position. Dr. Hill is recognized as one of the outstanding Rotarians of the District, stated the Governor.

After Dr. Hill had been nominated as a candidate for District Governor, all clubs were informed, and posters printed to circulate to all clubs in the district.

Unless there is a change in plans, Dr. Hill will be a candidate for the office next year, if he is willing to accept.

Shale Deposit on Palo Duro Makes Good Type Brick

J. W. Lawrence of Amarillo has uncovered a shale on his land south-east of Canyon in the canyons which is reported to be excellent for manufacturing brick and tile.

Mr. Lawrence has sent samples of the shale to Washom where it was run through the Railroad Tunnel Kiln at 2060 degrees. Bars came out in excellent condition, and capable of meeting all of the tests for good building brick.

Mr. Lawrence states that he plans to open a brick manufacturing plant on his place as soon as he can get a road opened to his place. When the plant is in operation he hopes to employ a minimum of 25 men in the plant. He will build homes for families on his place, states Mr. Lawrence.

Plainview Band Won Top Honors In Contest Here

The Plainview High School band made a clean sweep of top honors Friday and Saturday in the contests held at West Texas State. This band was rated first in concert, in sight reading and in marching.

Nearly 6,000 high school bandsmen were here from all over the Panhandle to parade and to be heard in various contests.

Jerry Newman, director of the Buffalo Band, was in charge of the contest. He was highly pleased with the results and the interest taken by high schools throughout this section.

Dairymen Hold a Barbecue Tuesday To Hear Authority

Members of the Randall County Dairymen's Association met in Amarillo Tuesday noon to hear an address by B. S. Stallones, manager of the South Texas Producers Association, and to enjoy a barbecue.

Officers of the local group are: Bill Wilson, president; Joe Carver, vice president; Bill Patke, secretary-treasurer; Harold Byars, Albert Brown, Earl Burtz, Jim Bible, directors.

EDITORIAL COMMENTS

The People of Texas Will Vote on Proposed Pay Hike

It appears certain that the people of Texas will have another vote on the proposed increase of legislative salaries. The people doubled the salaries of members of the legislature in 1931, but that was an increase to only $10 per day.

That members are now asking a flat salary of $3,600 per year for full time services with annual sessions. Judging from the manner in which members have failed to stay on their jobs; staging walk-outs; and filibusters, the voters may decide that legislators are now being paid about as much as they are worth.

With this idea in view, the voters rejected an increase in pay two years ago. What the voters will do in 1949 is their business, not ours.

If the voters decide to increase legislative salaries, they should at the same time determine to elect only members who are qualified and experienced, rather than turn this tremendous job of law making over to a bunch of school boys.

Sorry now that you didn't pay your poll tax this year, aren't you?

Country Press Would Bear Too Heavy Load of P. O. Deficit

The postoffice department has succeeded in getting various postal rates increased in order to wipe out the continued deficit of the department.

A hard blow is directed at the country newspapers, where it is proposed to increase postal rates about 600%. If this is done, subscription rates must be hiked to a dangerous level. Singling out the country press is a poor way to raising such a huge deficit which the department creates year after year.

The government never considers economy in government, such as doing away with surplus help; working more than 40 hours per week; denying free use of the mails to the thousands and thousands of persons and institutions which are taking advantage of free postage.

Before the post office department starts forcing into bankruptcy all but the well financed weekly newspapers, it should start in by cleaning up its own business.

Falls Flat as Rabble Rouser

Those who read this page will recall several times that we have pointed out the danger of branding an enemy a "communist" just because you do not like him.

The so-called Rev. Frank Norris went to Austin last week to talk to the law makers about the commies, and to "name" members of the University of Texas faculty who were commies.

The speaker finally got around and called one name. Those who listened to Norris declare that he has failed as a rabble rouser, and falls far short of the Norris of other days.

Every business firm in Canyon can afford to give prizes for the great Treasure Hunt in the Palo Duro State Park. One Amarillo firm has given nearly $6,000 in merchandise prizes! He knows that his investment will bring him returns. No one expects any firm in Canyon to do such a big job in the way of prizes, but we can do the big thing by doing our best.

The labor bosses never fail in demands and gall to make these demands—all of which would increase the cost of products. Having secured a maximum of wages, they are adding all kinds of frills to their demands. Naturally they do not expect to get many of these demands, but is going to keep them from asking?

When you talk about this "free" medical service under the President's health bill, just keep in mind the fact that it will cost employers and employees alike around nine billions of dollars annually. Who said that eighteen billions of dollars annually was cheap?

We are worried about Canyon real estate. Fabulous prices are being set on vacant lots. The taxing agencies should get hold of these prices and put the vacant lots on the tax rolls at the prices the owners think they are worth.

Just drive around Canyon and note the improvements that have been made during the past year. There are still many, many residences which need a coat of paint and various kinds of repairs.

Lifting the face of business houses goes on and on. We hope that before long all business houses around the square which have not been improved will join the band wagon of improvements.

Have you joined the Palo Duro Park Booster Club? Every cent collected for $1.00 memberships goes into the advertising fund of the Club. No salaries or other expenses comes from this membership drive.

Much of the Friction in the world could be eliminated if there were fewer efforts to make somebody do something the way somebody else thinks it should be done.

The mass of propaganda swallowed by the so-called intelligent people of the United States is little short of miraculous.

There seems to be a school of thought, in connection with human conduct, that whatever is wrong with an individual is a disease.

This is the time of the year when residents of Randall county are amazed by the beauty (and beauties) they see about them.

Be it said to the credit of the Japanese that no author in that country has come out with a book, explaining how Tojo won the war.

If you want to air your views, on any subject, write a short letter to the editor and we'll see if it can't be printed in an early issue of The Canyon News.

The best treatment for the disease of alcoholism is less alcohol and there is no reason why there should be tremendous expenses involved in the cure.

The argument that public assistance destroys initiative is met by the counter-argument that nobody on pauper row has much independence.

Twenty-Five Years Has Made No Changes in Local Conditions

Twenty-five years ago The News had this to say editorially: "The biggest job a salesman in Canyon would have would be to thoroughly sell Canyon to Canyon people. There is little use of going to the outside world and telling outside people the wonderful advantages of living in Canyon and Randall county until the people at home believe that they live in the best town on the plains. Get the habit folks; live for Canyon; work for Canyon; believe in Canyon."

The name advice might apply in this good 1949. We believe that more people today believe in Canyon than believed in it 25 years ago; but we have altogether too many folks who are not convinced that Canyon is the best place in the world for them; and far too few people are working hard to make Canyon a better place.

One of the surest ways to build Canyon is to buy in Canyon, rather than run away from home for everything that you buy.

You would be amazed at the antics of some folks; they run away from home without looking at the stocks of local stores; and then express amazement when they find the same articles in Canyon quoted at a lower price. Give the local merchants a chance to serve you. Then if you do not find what you want here in Canyon there is some excuse of buying elsewhere.

A business woman in Canyon recently remarked: "If the Chamber of Commerce will sell the idea to business men of trading in Canyon instead of running to Amarillo for all their wants, Canyon will grow and prosper."

Perhaps this person has something. Let's set the good example by all trading at home during the balance of 1949!

Lack of City Parking Space Should Help Smaller Towns

Parking problems in cities has become a real menace to the big down-town business houses and office buildings. Unless storage garages are provided within easy parking distances of these establishments, they will be doomed.

In California, big stores long ago moved out away from congested business centers, and are located on paved highways away from the usual retail markets. Shopping centers are being established around the big cities in Texas.

Amarillo has a down-town parking problem on its hands, and one that demands action if the big stores are to continue to be the center of the retail business.

The automobile is a wonderful invention for the convenience of the owners, but it is the most useless mode of transportation in congested centers.

The lack of parking space in these big cities should lead to the development of retail business in small towns like Canyon, which are located within easy driving distance of a city. In Canyon you will not be hampered by parking facilities.

Unless we save the soil of America, the next generation will go hungry. No wonder those in authority in Washington are concerned over the future of this nation. All of those who read history will understand that many of the older nations died when their soil died. All Americans came from the soil; and only by saving our heritage will we be able to fulfill the great obligations which are ours.

Having failed to starve out the people of Berlin, the Russians proclaim they are now ready to talk over the matter of the blockade. America tells the Reds that when the talk starts we shall take the lead. The Reds have changed their minds too many times, and changed their demands so that Uncle Sam is very skeptical of another parley until satisfied that Stalin means business.

It seems that the administration has messed things up considerably by telling the Senate that those who vote for the North Atlantic Pact must also vote for money to army our allies. While all of us admit that America is stuck with a broke world on our hands, the United States Senate still likes to work things out in its own way.

If Chiang had appealed to his armies when America was spending billions of dollars in his cause, the story might be different today. The Nationalists could whip the commies, if they chose to fight. But they have laid down on their job, largely because of the greed and graft of the Chiang leaders.

Life is about the cheapest thing in America. Just go out and kill some one; and if you have the money for a good lawyer, he will provide the evidence to clear you.

We'll pay more attention to the argument of business men against farm benefits, when they advocate abolition of the protective tariff and all subsidies to business.

The defendant in any murder case is about the purest person you ever heard of; while the victim usually turns out to be a first class heel.

“---next after his Creator”

“He who can double his food—deserves to rank—next after his Creator.”

Thomas Jefferson wrote those words about 150 years ago—but they were never more true than today.

Today, the world's greatest need is for food. People are starving—dying. The man who produces more food saves lives.

One of the best ways to help increase production today was also recommended by Jefferson. Horizontal plowing, he called it. We call it contour farming.

But this is only one part of the pattern of farming that can help you increase your food production—and save lives by saving soil and water. Strip-cropped fields will also stop wind and water erosion. Cover crops and fertilizers will build soil. Grass will heal worn land.

These are ways to farm better today and live better tomorrow—to produce more at less cost—to make work easier—to build instead of just “using up”—to give your children a better farm, and a chance for a better world.

Thomas Jefferson was right about plowing. Thomas Jefferson was right about food. The man who produces more food today saves lives.

McCarty Talked at Lions Club Lunch on Palo Duro Park

John McCarty of Amarillo spoke Thursday at the Lions Club luncheon on the coming Treasure Hunt at the Palo Duro State Park. He is engaged in public relations work in Amarillo and has taken over the publicity of the Palo Duro State Park.

"The Palo Duro has long needed a publicity campaign, but this is the first year that the business affairs of the Park justified such a campaign," stated McCarty. The debt against the Park has been reduced, and the bonds are being paid off as they become due. When the toll is removed at the gate, thousands of people will flock to the Park to enjoy the wonderful scenery.

It is up to the people of the Panhandle to patronize the Park in order to pay these bonds off.

McCarty outlined the work that he was doing in lining up organizations throughout the Panhandle for an intensive drive for a bigger attendance, and for a successful Treasure Hunt. The advertising campaign will be carried on through a newspaper to be published; through highway billboards; folders; newspaper advertising; and other plans.

Governor Jester has promised to be here for the opening on May 28. Just before the official opening of the Treasure Hunt, 10,000 numbered coins will be dropped from a plane over the Park. These coins will bring a vast number of prizes to the finders. Merchants are urged to donate merchandise prizes to this Treasure Hunt. The Amarillo Gold Sox baseball club has donated 102 season passes to the Treasure Hunt. These passes are valued at near $60 each, or a total of nearly $6,000 which is being donated by Bob Seeds.

Mrs. C. O. Elkins started work in Canyon Friday soliciting merchandise prizes, and selling Booster Club memberships. Proceeds from the sale of Booster Memberships go toward paying the expenses of the Treasure Hunt. None of the money goes for salaries.

The Park drew 53,000 people during 1948. McCarty believes that the Park will draw at least 153,000 persons during 1949.

All members of the Lions Club took memberships in the Booster Club.

Bechtold-Glenn Rites Read Sat.

Mrs. Viola Bechtold, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. I. Boyce, and Bob Glenn, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Glenn, were married Saturday afternoon at 4:00 o'clock in the home of Justice of Peace B. F. Machen who read the services.

Mrs. Glenn is associated with her mother and sister in the Evelyn's Beauty Shop and Mr. Glenn is associated with his father in the ownership and operation of the Model Dairy. For the present they will both continue in their work.

President Truman is prepared to go along with plans to have Congress adjourn on schedule July 31 of this year, but will expect to call members back into a special session starting in late October or early November. He thinks that later in the year public pressures will build up enough to induce Congress to do many of the things now scheduled for sidetracking.

President Truman finds that even old-line New Dealers are critical of the way he promises everything to almost any group that asks it, regardless of the cost. The White House never has tallied up the total cost of projects that it has endorsed, expecting all the time that Congress would balk at putting up the money.

The public is pusillanimous and cowardly because it is weak. It knows itself to be a great dunce and that it has no opinions but upon suggestion.—William Haylitt.

Wanted:

A MAN TO STEAL SOME MONEY!

We're looking for a man (don't care how old or young he is) who loves money.

A man who likes the feeling of having a little extra money on hand, just in case something unexpected pops up.

A man who swears he's going to save some money, and yet never seems to get started, because—well, because he just never seems to get started.

We want this man to steal some money—from himself.

That's right, we want him to go down to his bank or into his boss (either one) and sign up for the Automatic Savings Plan.

Then he can sit back and watch his Savings Bonds pile up, like pennies in a kid's bank. Only there's none of the temptation of a piggy bank. No pain, when you save this automatic way.

It's just like getting extra money from yourself, except that you never know it's happening—you hardly miss it when it comes around to paying the bills or balancing the budget, because it's worked out so well. And you get every cent of it back, with a handsome interest—$4 on every $3 you put in.

The automatic Payroll Savings or Bond-A-Month Plans make saving money almost as easy as spending it. See about whichever of these two plans is best for you today.

Foster - Milam Betrothal Is Announced at Tea

On Friday afternoon, April 29, a tea at the home of Mrs. Hosea Foster announced the engagement and approaching marriage of Miss Mary Alice Foster, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Foster of Wayside to Mr. J. K. Milam, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Milam of Sudan.

Hostesses for the occasion were Mrs. Jack Foster, Mrs. Otis Parker and Mrs. Hosea Foster.

In the receiving line were Mrs. Hosea Foster, Miss Mary Alice Foster, who wore a gown of black taffeta and white sheer, Mrs. Jack Foster, mother of the bride-to-be and Mrs. J. K. Milam, mother of the groom-to-be. Corsages of white carnations and peach ribbons identical to the one worn by the honoree were worn by the entire house party. Miss Evelyn Milam of Pampa, sister of the groom-to-be, presided at the guest book which was placed on the secretary in the living room. Atop the secretary and in front of the lattice were a miniature bride and groom from which streamers of peach satin, sprayed with white sweet pea corsages tied with peach ribbons, were arranged among the shelves almost to the floor. As each guest registered, Miss Milam took one of these corsages from the streamers and pinned it upon the guest.

Wide peach satin streamers draped to either side of the mantel which was completely banked with peach gladioli made the announcement in gold letters spelling Mary and J. K. on one side of the mantel and June 12 on the opposite side.

Mrs. J. J. Walker and Mrs. Ples Harper, assisted by Mrs. Paul Foster and Mrs. Robert W. Foster, both of Amarillo, presided at the tea table which was draped with a beautiful handmade cut work cloth and centered with a lovely May basket arrangement of variegated spring flowers. Complete silver services completed the appointments of the table.

Approximately fifty guests were served tea, coffee, mints decorated with roses and leaves, nuts and individual white cakes mounted with peach roses.

BARNARDS HONOR DAUGHTER WITH BIRTHDAY DINNER

On Friday evening, May 29, Mr. and Mrs. Max Barnard honored their daughter, Mrs. Gene Hardeeman, with a birthday dinner in their home.

Seated at the fried chicken dinner with all the trimmings were Mr. and Mrs. Hardeeman, Pete Hayhurst and Miss Naomi Lancaster, all of Amarillo and the host and hostess.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Morgan returned Monday from Tyler where his mother is seriously ill.

CHRIS WOOTEN TALKS TULIPS TO PLEASANTVIEW H. D. CLUB

The Pleasantview Home Demonstration Club met April 25 in the home of Mrs. John Jennings.

The house was beautifully decorated with iris and tulips.

Mrs. Joe Carver called the meeting to order. Roll call was answered with each member naming her favorite perennial.

The high light of the meeting was a talk by Chris Wooten. He told the club that to insure success in growing tulips one must start with good bulbs. He said to be sure to get bulbs from a house advertising, "We sell bulbs from Holland only."

The size of the bulb should be 1 3/8 inches. He also said to water tulips in the morning only and not to plant the bulbs later than November 15.

The club chose "Beautiful Texas" as the club song.

Orchards and their care and home management were chosen for next year's study.

Miss Patterson discussed perennials. She told the club not to forget violets and crocus for early spring bloom.

Refreshments of molded peach salad, cherry cake, nuts and coffee were served to Mrs. J. H. Barrett, Mrs. Earl Burtz, Mrs. Christler Crain, Mrs. J. H. Howell, Mrs. Albert Meyers, Mrs. Tom Moore, Miss Patterson, Mrs. Cass Jennings, Mrs. H. J. Price, Mrs. Mae Johnson, Mrs. R. J. Hodges, Mrs. Henry Meyers and the hostess.

The next meeting will be held May 12 in the home of Mrs. Albert Meyers.

BLUE AND WHITE SHOWER HONORS MRS. C. DUNLAP

Mrs. Chester Dunlap was honored with a pink and blue shower in the home of Mrs. H. C. Wesley Friday afternoon.

Mrs. J. W. Wesley and Mrs. H. H. Shipman were hostesses and conducted a number of amusing games.

The gifts were presented by Mrs. Dunlap's twin nieces, Donna and La Wana Schaeffer, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Schaeffer.

Refreshments consisted of coconut cake, cherry pudding and iced tea.

Guests were Mrs. Finis Brazil, Mrs. Melvin Miller, Mrs. Elmer Miller, Mrs. George Schaeffer, Geneva Gossett, Mrs. Rafoed Shipman, Mrs. E. W. Schaeffer, Mrs. Noel Cheek, Misses Vesta and LaVena Amerson, Mrs. Donald Schaeffer, Lovetta and Marie Evans, Mrs. G. E. Wesley, Mrs. T. H. Wann, the honoree and the hostesses.

Those sending gifts were Mrs. Sutton, Mrs. Rogers, Mrs. Alvin Wesley, Mrs. Warren Knowles and Mrs. C. M. Tucker.

W. S. C. S. MEETS IN HOME OF MRS. C. A. MURRAY TUES.

The Women's Society of Christian Service met in the home of Mrs. C. A. Murray at 3:00 o'clock Tuesday afternoon with 15 members present.

Guests from Happy were Mrs. Ballard and Mrs. Watson.

Assisting on the program were Misses Joyce Hill, Jean Paine, Marjory Frost, Eleanor Denman and Dorothy McGuire.

Punch and cookies were served during the social hour.

Tennessee Malone Book Memorial Given Two Schools

Dr. Mattie Swayne Mack was hostess to the American Association of University Women Monday night in a meeting devoted to business.

The organization voted to make a gift of $50 worth of books to the Public School Library and to West Texas State College Demonstration School Library in honor of Miss Tennessee Malone, librarian and member of the organization, whose death occurred recently.

AAUW will also provide a $100 scholarship for a high school girl of Spanish - American background, which for 1949 will be known as the Mary E. Hudspeth Scholarship. Dr. Hattie M. Anderson was appointed to administer this scholarship.

Miss Jean Moore was elected to represent the local branch of the AAUW at the National convention which will be held this summer at Seattle, Washington.

Mrs. Mary Silgar, Mrs. Joe Findley, and Miss Novella Goodman gave reports of the recent state convention at which Dr. Hattie M. Anderson was elected state parliamentarian.

It is likely that the organization will sponsor another appearance of the Claire Tree Major plays in the fall of '49. Definite action was deferred until the first fall meeting.

County Jails Over Plains Comes in For Much Criticism

The Newsman looks over about 75 country weekly newspapers. In recent weeks there has been a renewed demand for better county jails throughout this territory. While many new court houses have been built in recent years, jails have not been kept up to the standards of these new buildings, according to reports.

The city owns the jail in Randall county, but has been anxious for the county to take over this property.

Jails are not intended to be places of scenic beauty and solid comfort, but it seems that too many of these places are unsanitary, and need improvements.

Mr. and Mrs. Floy Kiser and children of Seymour visited from Friday through Sunday in the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Harding. Sunday Calvin Kiser of Panhandle and Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Harding and Jimmie of Amarillo joined them.

Mrs. J. M. Peterson of Higgins and Mrs. R. L. Turner and son, Doug, of Stillwater, Oklahoma, spent the week end in the home of their daughter and sister, Mrs. Milton Morris and family.

Miss Elizabeth Beckman spent the weekend with her cousin, Gladys Leseberg.

SHORT STORY
Julie Was Nineteen
By Lilliance M. Mitchell

3 Minute Fiction

TO SAY that Julie was sorely disappointed when a very plump woman sank into the front seat beside her on the bus would be only part truth. Julie was mad clear through. Especially so since a whole string of slim, dark young men filed on the bus with that careless ease of men who know how to go places. Julie thought that she counted eighteen of these young men but the plump woman remarked pleasantly as Julie craned her neck, "You don't need to move, my dear. I don't mind in the least having someone in the seat next to me. I always reserve this seat so I can see where the bus is going. I feel almost as if I'm driving myself."

The last young man was swinging into the bus now and he paused before the plump woman. Poking her amiably on the shoulder he said firmly, "I want two chicken legs for dinner, see? I gotta eat, understand me—I'm on no diet! I want mushroom sauce, too!"

"Oh, you do, do you?" said the plump woman cheerfully. "Seat along to your seat and eat what I put before you! I may even give you liver and bacon if I feel like it."

Behind her, Julie could hear one of the young men singing in low tones. His seatmate joined in presently and they appeared to be singing a part-song. Julie turned restlessly. She knew the song well. There were three notes wrong.

Suddenly, she found herself humming the melody properly.

"SING it for them, my dear," urged the plump woman. "They're not getting fresh. They're my boys—"

"Your boys! Not all eighteen of them?" asked Julie in horror.

The woman laughed comfortably. "Well, the one who stopped to talk to me. He's the leader of the orchestra. But the others have all been with us a long time and they're all A-1 fellows. They've put the music with the luggage and they won't have much time to rehearse when we get there. They'll all give me a hand with the cooking."

"Maybe when they get going, they can hire a dietician," said Julie gently.

"Bless your heart, Jon makes three thousand a week clear," she said in her pleasant fashion. "Sing the song for them, dearie."

Julie half turned in her seat and with blushing cheeks sang the melody in low, clear notes. The others in the bus joined in. The one called Jon came to stand beside his mother's chair.

"If you had a wardrobe — and wanted a job—I could put you on

"Hey, sing it again, will you?" said one of the young men.

tonight," he told Julie. "Just before we started I had a telegram from our soloist and she's in some hospital with tonsillitis. Bad luck for her but she can't sing for months. Well, do you want the job?"

"I have an amethyst strapless chignon," Julie told him.

Jon turned questioning eyes to his mother. "The silver drop behind her, Mom?"

His mother nodded. "You didn't mention the salary to her, Son."

"We'll say a hundred a week to start. Jon Gardner's Swing Orchestra is the name—in case you don't know."

"You—why, you're on the radio, too," said Julie.

"Oh, yes, but we'll add your share of the radio proceeds. We have a profit-sharing stunt amongst ourselves on that," said Jon Gardner casually.

And Julie, looking up at him, dropped her eyes. She didn't want to acknowledge so soon just how much she liked him—now! And even at this moment she could imagine Joe's shining eyes and his "Aw-gee Sis!" when he learned that she was to be the soloist with Jon Gardner's Swing Orchestra. In a fashion Jon reminded her of her brother, Joe. When a girl of nineteen goes maternal, she is falling in love.

Julie was nineteen.

Our Mother-

Every hour of every day... and night... consciously or subconsciously... we draw upon Mother's strength and love. It is a meager tribute that we should pause once a year and dedicate one day to Mother.

Mother is what makes the wheels go round. Home isn't home without Mother. The countless details, the careful planning, the constant loving care... that takes Mother every time. Children won't tick without Mother. From the start, Mother is our warm meal when we are hungry, our extra blanket on a cold night, our light in a dark room. Little minds and hearts reach out for MOTHER. Baby-sitters aren't the same. Servants are insufficient. Even Daddy isn't quite enough. A well child runs on eager feet to tell MOTHER of his joys; a sick child calls constantly for MOTHER to soothe away his pains. There's something special, something extra, that comes only from Mother.

Who else can kiss a hurt and make it well? Who else can give us lovely memories of a happy childhood, rich with fun and friends? And who, but Mother, can lead us from our earliest days to find Him as our Refuge and Strength, a very present Help in time of trouble?

Life brings floods of uncertainties, disappointments, failures. Mother is the rock that stands fast. Her faith is sure, her spirit never wavering, her love never failing. Life, too, brings joy, achievement, success. Then we know one heart is happier even than our own. Mother is then the soaring cloud of radiant rapture, lifting us to new attempts.

YOU IN THE CHURCH
THE CHURCH IN YOU

Character is a by-product of the church. It is here that young and old alike are showered with benedictions, that fortify and influence for a better citizenship and a stronger democracy. In the church the ministerial are molding religious character. Statesmen today declare that the church alone can furnish leadership to handle the affairs of state in these perilous times. Then we with our children should go to the church of our choice on Sunday. "You in the Church and the Church in you"—form a combination for good. Be a regular CHURCH-GOER and a daily BIBLE READER.

As long as Mother lives, we shall not lack for care or love or prayers. When separation comes, as come it must, "death is swallowed up in victory." Life will not change Mother's love; death will not conquer it. Mother's spirit will walk ever beside us; her love will wrap us close. Her gentle hand will guide us; her sweet voice will echo in our ears. Again we'll feel that extra blanket slipped quietly over us, in the coldness of our night! Mother is and will be forever more our guardian angel. In this world or in the next, we know that we may draw eternally upon the strength and the love that is... MOTHER. Go to your church this Mother's Day.

MORTGAGE DEBT

Mortgage indebtedness on non-farm homes in the United States exceeds $34,000,000,000, as compared to $21,000,000,000, in 1930. Some of the increase is due to higher costs of construction of new homes and increased appraised value of existing homes.

PARITY PRICES

Parity prices, about which so much is heard in connection with discussions of agricultural problems, are those designed to give farm commodities the same purchasing power, in terms of things they buy, that they had in the period from 1909 to 1914.

Senator Walter George, head of the powerful Senate Finance Committee, is prepared to insist that Congress either reduce spending on foreign aid and other programs or go on record for or against tax increases. Senator George does not favor an unbalanced federal budget. Odds still are on a 10 per cent cut in foreign aid.

Dean Acheson, Secretary of State, figures that he will get more total dollars in the end by feeding his ideas to Congress in small doses, one at a time, so that the amounts do not seem so big. The Department of State still is convinced that dollars put up by U. S. taxpayers are the answer to the world's troubles.

PERON MAY LOSE

World trade experts say that President Peron, of Argentina, faces heavy losses on food and raw materials which he stored in anticipation of a war between the United States and Russia. The Argentinians held up the prices of their goods, expecting a conflict to create an extraordinary demand, but the increase in the surpluses threatens to become a serious problem.

Joseph Stalin has U. S. diplomatic and military planners wondering what to do in event he should call off the "cold war" and start making real peace gestures.

"QUICKIE" DIVORCES

The status of some "quickie" divorces is rendered more uncertain by the recent Supreme Court that some of them can be challenged for lack of proper service upon the divorced partner. Justice Jackson says the opinion "adds confusion" to "our crazy-quilt divorce laws." Incidentally South Carolina, the only State to absolutely prohibit divorces, has now passed a law permitting them upon four grounds.

IRREGULAR AIRLINES

Operating licenses for about sixty companies, flying 200 aircraft, will be suspended next month by the Civil Aeronautics Board, which expects to examine the large irregular carriers on an individual basis. Spokesmen for independent airlines say that the action will put them out of business, but regular carriers say that the large plane operators take the cream of the business but fail to serve less profitable areas.

Winston Churchill, wartime British ruler and head of the Conservative Party, when last in U. S. to make an address had planned to suggest the advantages of a preventive war in dealing with Russia, but altered the line of his address before it was given. President Truman is understood to have hinted to Mr. Churchill that he should be cautious in what he said.

John Snyder, Treasury Secretary, is becoming concerned over the prospect that he will need to borrow heavily in the year ahead in order to pay the Government's bills. The way things are going it is to become necessary for the Treasury to float new issues of securities to get part of the money it must have.

Leon Keyserling, member of the Council of Economic Advisers and a holdout for the idea that there is to be another round of inflation, is beginning to weaken in his views. Mr. Keyserling now admits that maybe 1949 trends are to be downward, not upward.

Herbert Hoover, former President, is not happy over the way both Democratic and Republican leaders are acting toward the program his commission shaped for reorganizing the machinery of Government to save as much as $3,000,000,000. Leaders in both parties are taking a negative attitude toward all reforms.

W. P. A. "SHELF"

After the last depression there was much talk of a "shelf" of public works for use to provide employment in the next economic emergency. The idea was to have plans ready for public projects. So far, blueprints on hand amount to $4,500,000,000 but unless other plans are made ready, experts fear that months will be required to provide emergency work assistance.

G. O. P.

Leaders of the Republican Party figure they have a chance to control the Senate in 1950, because a turn of seven seats will give the G. O. P. a Senate majority. Just at present, however, there is considerable difference of opinion among party leaders as to the best strategy to follow in connection with current issues.

Justice Felix Frankfurter of the preme Court is back in the role of an important adviser on matters of high policy. The Supreme Court Justice is a close friend and adviser of Dean Acheson, Secretary of State. Chief Justice Fred Vinson is No. 1 adviser to President Truman on many issues of broad policy. Justice William O. Douglas is taking a continued interest in political affairs and trends, but is not now in high favor at the White House.

Military leaders who are hinting that they would like to put a bigger American army in Europe to guard a defense line against Russia are due to get a cool reception from appropriation committees in Congress when they expand on their ideas. The impression is growing in Congress that the 200,000,000 or more people in Western Europe should be able to find enough men to build an army.

Ernest Bevin, Britain's Foreign Secretary, is convinced that Russia is building a military base in Albania, to outflank Greece. That's why Mr. Bevin is urging Secretary of State Acheson to give the Greek army more money.

Wrapped up in a $1,500,000,000 plan for aid to China is an earmark $5,000,000 for purchase of U. S. silver to bolster Chinese currency. The silver bloc in Congress is very much interested in helping China just at the time when the mining industry in the West is running into trouble.

Littlefield Man in Dramatic Talk on Affairs of World

Wolfe Shaw, Russian refugee and business man at Littlefield, talked at the Rotary Club luncheon Tuesday upon world affairs. He was introduced by A. B. Haynes.

He was born in Russia, and coming to America has been able to see more clearly than the average American the advantages offered in this nation. He was a merchant in Kansas City across the street from Harry Truman, the clothier of other days.

In these critical and confused times he wonders how Roosevelt would have handled world affairs. He pointed out the fact that war has never won anything that peace would not have won; that he who throws mud always gets muddy hands; that Jesus survived alone on love.

Mr. Shaw said that he felt sorry for those who had not lived in other lands; to be forced to take their hats off to pictures of so-called great men hanging on the wall; to ask for passports when going to visit a friend; to be awakened in the night to be searched; to view only poverty and despair.

Four short years have made a great change in this nation. Four years ago we were standing shoulder to shoulder against tyranny and darkness, and offering the four freedoms of the world.

Churchill stood in the U. S. Congress and spoke the immortal words: "What kind of people do they think we are?" In answer 160,000 American boys gave their lives that this nation might live. "We owe these boys something," declared the speaker. "We owe them our greatest effort to make the world a better place in which to live. We shall demand that they did not die in vain."

Larry White of Amarillo announced that he had unusual peopies which he would give away in a limited number.

Other visitors were: Bob Roundtree, J. O. McQuire, Arch Hunsley, Charlie Underwood, Horace Griggs, Fred DeCoster, Paul Fowler, Jim McKnight, Frank Storm, Jr., L. Jackson, C. A. Green, all of Amarillo; A. B. Haynes, Jr., of Canyon; Jack Allen of Borger; Carter McKenney and Gus Shaw of Littlefield.

Miss Nina Iverson spent the week end in Canadian in the J. D. Henderson home.

EDGETOWN H. D. CLUB MEETS WITH MRS. RALPH FORESTER TO PALO DURO RUSK H. D. C.

The Edgetown Home Demonstration Club met with Mrs. Ralph Forester, 1404 Sixth Avenue on April 22 with the president, Mrs. J. H. Wright, presiding.

The program on "Household Pest Control" was given by Mrs. West. Mrs. M. E. Sogee, Mrs. Charles Stratton and Mrs. R. E. Gill.

A number of members reported they were reading from the reserve shelves at the library. Mrs. C. W. Dunn is chairman of the education committee and wishes others to join the group of readers.

A bake sale will be sponsored by the club Saturday, May 7, at Cooper's Market.

Delicious chocolate pie with iced punch was served at the refreshment hour.

Those present included Mrs. Sogee, Mrs. Wright, Mrs. Gill, Mrs. Jessie Reid, Mrs. DeGraffenried, Mrs. J. C. Dowd, Mrs. E. B. Anthony, Mrs. Dunn, Mrs. T. T. Fain, Mrs. W. I. Wester, Mrs. George Combs, Mrs. Stratton, Mrs. M. W. Slagle and Mrs. Frank Wright.

AUXILIARY TO MEET

CENTRAL H. D. CLUB MEETS IN MAE JOHNSON HOME

Mrs. Mae Johnson was hostess to the Central Home Demonstration Club Friday, April 29, in her home.

Mrs. S. L. Terry was in charge of the opening exercise and read a poem, "The Mother Hen," to the club. Mrs. R. E. Foster led the club in singing some club songs. The roll call was answered by each present naming a favorite perennial flower.

Mrs. Levi Cole announced the arrival of two bolts of satin for the club.

Two subjects were selected to be voted on in council for the new year books.

Mrs. Truman Kluck gave her resignation from the club as she is moving from Canyon.

Mrs. J. M. Breitling gave a very interesting report on the first Home Demonstration Club organized in Canyon, the old Edgetown Club which was organized in 1933. There were 12 members and Mrs. C. S. Sanford was elected president with Miss Holland as vice president. Their club song was "As We Go Marching On." They selected cheese and jelly making for their demonstration. The first year books were made for 1934 and there were 16 members by that time. Out of this club grew the many Home Demonstration Clubs of Randall County.

A pretty sweet pea corsage was presented to each member who has been in club work for 10 years.

The hostess served delicious refreshments to the following members: Mrs. C. V. Wilkerson, Mrs. Foster, Mrs. Cole, Mrs. Frank Phillips, Mrs. Breitling, Mrs. Maude Walters, Mrs. R. E. Long, Mrs. Hugh Greiner, Mrs. Truman Kluck, Mrs. Fred Marshall, Mrs. Terry, Mrs. Velton Sogee, Mrs. W. L. Rice, Mrs. S. R. Hood, Mrs. Douglas Marshall, Mrs. Otto White, Mrs. George Barker, Miss Bebe Webb; and guests, Mrs. C. L. Roberts, Mrs. C. F. Marshall, Mrs. G. B. Bourland, Mrs. E. C. Penick, Mrs. Earl Burtz, Mrs. H. G. Tucker, Miss Marie Webb and Mrs. W. T. Beck.

RABBIT-CAVY BREEDERS MEET

The Canyon Chapter, Texas Panhandle Rabbit and Cavy Breeders Association will meet on Monday night, May 9, in the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Chambers, 1013 Eighth St. Everyone interested in rabbit production is urged to attend. Visitors are always welcome. The meeting opens at 8:00 o'clock.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to express our sincere appreciation for the many kind expressions of sympathy which were extended to us at the time of the reburial of our loved one, A. C. Neff and family.

Delaware Infant Practical Subject In Homemaker Class

NEWARK, DEL.—The University of Delaware has a "problem child."

However, Charles P. Griffin IV, is not a problem in the usual sense of the word. No, indeed. He's practical.

Charles, a blue-eyed, one-year-old blond, is the son of Nell H. Griffin, assistant professor of home management in the university's school of home economics. Mrs. Griffin brought him here when she arrived to take up her teaching duties last fall, and installed him in the home management house on the campus.

Since then girl students in the course have shared with Mrs. Griffin in the daily care of Charles.

Says Mrs. Griffin: "My son has made a great deal of progress and very definitely is not experimented on, despite the fact he is Delaware's first home management baby."

The students take charge of Charles for a week at a time in rotation. Their first week at the home management house is spent helping Mrs. Griffin care for the child. It's really a week of allowing Charles to familiarize himself with the new students.

The girls living in the house do the buying (on a strict budget), cooking, serving, housekeeping—plus the care of the baby.

The girls plan their hours so that one always is with the baby while the others attend classes.

Mrs. Griffin says her students dress the baby, buy his clothes and put him to bed. Some of them—on their own initiative—make some of the child's smaller things like argyle socks and mittens.

Overcrowding of Schools Held Cause of Neuroses

HARTFORD, CONN., Feb. 17—

Overcrowding of schools has been the cause of psychopathic cases among both teachers and pupils, Dr. Finnis E. Engleman, state commissioner of education, said here recently.

At a legislative meeting of the Connecticut state federation of women's clubs, he made a plea for replacement of obsolete buildings with new structures to care for increased school enrollment and said that an adequate program could not be accomplished without state aid.

Alfred V. Bodine, president of the Bridgeport chamber of commerce, told the 150 women at the conference that "the Government can give nothing to any citizen that it does not first take from another citizen."

State Representative John P. Cotter, Democrat, of Hartford, minority leader, spoke in behalf of the Democratic administration's proposed state income tax. He said it would give families in lower income groups a lighter load than does the present sales tax.

State Representative George S. Conway, Republican of Guilford, majority leader, defended the sales tax as "painless" and said it was financing state services "all in accordance with our means."

Trailer With Sun Deck To Be Placed on Market

CHICAGO—A trailer with a collapsible sun deck-balcony and a two-story house on wheels were two of the 1949 models on display at the Trailer Coach Manufacturers association show held here recently.

One company has produced a trailer with a balcony-sun deck that folds up for traveling. For $12,500 a trailer dweller also gets a dog house, a transparent plastic dome in the living room, a bar and a bedroom with twin beds. The living room will accommodate week-end guests.

The two-story movable house has three bedrooms upstairs and a living room, kitchen and full-sized bathroom with a bathtub downstairs. It weighs 7,500 pounds and is built of aluminum. The price is $7,500.

Umpires Soon Superfluous As Device Foul Hits

WASHINGTON—Base hit or foul ball? Soon fans will be advising umpires to go and have their eyes examined, after calling a close one just inside or just outside the foul line.

To take this wrangle-causing uncertainty out of baseball a Washington inventor, Allen K. Nelson, has devised what he calls a foul ball indicator. It consists of a post, to be set at the far end of the outfield on the foul line, with a pair of crossarms from which a series of free-swinging rods are suspended. Half the rods are thus in "fair" territory, the other half in "foul."

Electrical connections from the rods are so arranged that if a batted ball hits one of the rods on the "fair" side it will cause a green lamp to light up, while if the impact is against a rod on the "foul" side a red signal will be flashed to the batter—and he'll have to wait for a better ball.

United States patent 2,461,836 has just been granted on this invention.

Snyder predicts era of record growth for business.

Many Dams Are Advocated for Power Projects

A bill has been proposed for the construction of a government dam on the North Fork of the Flathead River in Montana. The main argument is that it would go a long way toward preventing floods of the sort which hit the Columbia River Basin last year.

The National Park Service has made a careful hydrological study of the project. It finds that the dam would be of very minor importance as a flood control factor. On the other hand, officials say, it would flood 15,000 acres of one of the most scenic wilderness areas in America. Then, by destroying winter range which is already deficient, it would practically wipe out the big game population of Glacier Park.

Wildlife Management Institute observes: "The chief objective is admittedly hydro-electric power but flood control is being used as an argument to justify this costly project. . . . Destroying one of the finest national parks for the benefit of a few at the expense of the taxpayers is not the answer. The use of the overworked 'flood control' excuse to rationalize the construction of this dam is not justified by the facts."

What is true of the proposed Glacier dam is true of the most of the rest of the Federal flood control and power projects, existing and pending. Beforehand, the stress is laid on flood control, land reclamation and so on. But, once the job is done and the money is spent, it appears that power production was the main objective. Thus, we socialize our enterprise—and in doing it we cause untold damage to natural resources on which the future life and welfare of the continent and its people depend. How long will it take the voters to awaken to the hard truth that they are being bamboozled out of their rights and privileges by socialist propaganda?

French and Dutch commanders, fighting colonial wars in the Far East, are confident that they now will be able to get a bigger supply of weapons with which to wage war, with U. S. willing to wink at arms transfers. With Communists controlling China, the idea is that U. S. officials will be less squeamish about what the French and Dutch do to put down native uprisings in Indo-China and Indonesia.

Joseph Stalin has some dollars he would like to spend in U. S. for machinery and other industrial equipment, which accounts in part for his efforts to get at least a truce in the cold war. Russians are starving for the industrial products that the West can offer them.

Proteins Needed In Daily Diet of All Citizens

The science of nutrition is relatively new. It has been confused in the public mind by the wild claims of thousands of food faddists who have tried to make up in zeal what they lack in knowledge. Within the medical profession itself, many years have been given to patient experiment and observation in order to winnow the true from the false.

An extremely important contribution to our knowledge of nutrition has appeared in the April issue of the Journal of the American Medical Association. It is written by Dr. James S. McLester, who is one of the world's foremost authorities on the subject, and the author of a textbook which is used in the major medical schools. The essence of Dr. McLester's findings is that most of us have diets which are insufficient in protein, and that the maintenance of good health and the restoration to health of the ill and injured depends on sharply increased amounts of protein.

Dr. McLester cites an unusually interesting example. "The protein quota of the American soldier's ration in the second World War was liberal—more liberal than that of any other soldier in the world," he says. "Measured in terms of greater vigor, quicker and more assured recovery from injury and a higher degree of morale, did this liberality of protein allowance in the American soldier's ration contribute to the winning of the war? I believe it did."

Complete protein is found in meat, milk and eggs. Of these, meat has a special advantage, in that most people can eat it three times a day with appetite and relish. Dr. McLester's analysis, based as it is upon a wealth of objective scientific knowledge, points the way to healthier and happier living.

Mr. Truman has been unwilling to admit that Russians were putting out peace feelers in the "cold war" in the absence of some kind of formal agreement. It was 15 months ago that the Russians started to sound out U. S. on a basis for resuming talks that might lead to world peace. White House and State Department officials denied those feelers right up to the last.

J. Edgar Hoover, FBI director, has managed to infiltrate so many of his agents into key positions in the U. S. Communist Party that Communist leaders are actually beginning to be suspicious of one another, not quite knowing who might be a Government agent.

Mr. Truman was not pleased by the way Defense Secretary Johnson ordered that work be stopped on the Navy's big aircraft carrier, and when notified the Secretary of the Navy of his decision, instead of letting the Navy Secretary in on his secret before giving it to the newspapers.

THE AMERICAN WAY

And How He Bites!

Inflation Has Been Checked; But Not Stopped

It would be a daring man indeed who would say that the forces of inflation have been spent in the United States. However, there has been a noticeable decline in the cost of living in general during late months, and there are signs that it will continue, even though on a modest scale.

That should be taken into consideration in the discussions, pro and con, surrounding the proposal to heavy increase the minimum wage, under the Federal Fair Employment Act. In the view of many economists, a high minimum wage would be a strong stimulant toward a new inflationary spiral.

The reason for this is that the minimum wage has an influence of more than that small part of the labor force to which it directly applies. It inevitably leads to wage increases throughout the entire industrial structure, including the highest paid categories of skilled craftsmen. When the unskilled, marginal worker gets a heavy percentage jump in pay, those who perform more difficult and responsible tasks feel that they should get a fatter pay envelope. So up go wages again—and prices follow, to the detriment of everyone.

Furthermore, the late declines in employment provide another strong case against a high minimum. There are many enterprises, such as retailing, which have room for beginners and untrained people, and which give them invaluable experience with which to go ahead in the world. But if the employer has to pay more for minor work than it is worth to him he will naturally seek ways to eliminate it. Then the unskilled will find fewer and fewer places to get a start.

If a manufacturer charges too much for his product, he prices himself out of his market. The identical principle can apply to labor.

Progress of 125 Years Shows for Great Strikes

Less than 125 years ago a locomotive was operated experimentally on a half-mile circular track at Hoboken, New Jersey. This was the first iron horse to run on rails in America.

Last year, the railroads of the United States spent $1,250,000,000 for additions and betterments alone—the largest sum ever spent in one year for such purposes. Close to 400,000 miles of railroad track was in service.

The century and a quarter of time that elapsed between those dates saw the building of this continent. It was a weak, backwoods nation, with small standing in the councils of the world, develop into the mightiest economic power on earth. It saw the standard of living of a swiftly growing population reach unprecedented heights.

The most spectacular early achievement of the railroads was the part they played in the winning of the West. Without them the frontiers could never have been pushed back, and a vast empire put to productive use. Every time a mile of rail was laid, civilization moved forward by that much. And when, finally, the two oceans were linked by bands of steel, a unified nation was in the making.

In the vast panorama of history that has followed, the role of the railroads has been equally important. They have served the country magnificently in great wars, in which transportation was an indispensable weapon of victory. In times of peace they have been the faithful ally of industry, agriculture. Nothing has ever been devised that could take their place as the basic means of moving the endless commerce of America.

John Snyder, Treasury Secretary, is of the opinion that Britain should start the procession toward devaluation of currencies in relation to the dollar by cutting down the present $4.03 value of the pound.

Senate leaders are beginning to take it for granted that there will be a special session of Congress, convening early in November, to start work on legislation that will fail to get action in the regular session of Congress that is due to end July 31. Idea is to put over tax changes until the special session.

A 4-to-4 split in the Supreme Court on the issue of whether industry can quote prices on a basis of delivery to the customer without violating antitrust laws was designed to throw this whole issue into Congress for decision. The Justices didn't think that the Supreme Court should legislate in this field.

Nothing Can Be More Expensive Than World War

The signing of the 12-power mutual defense treaty marked the unprecedented new step in foreign policy for the United States. Practically every columnist and editorial writer promptly pointed this out. But considerably less attention has been given to the intense practical problem which must be solved if the document is to be an effective instrument for stopping aggression and maintaining the peace of the world.

The European nations which have signed the pact—and which in many cases have shown great courage in doing so—want arms of all kinds. Only the U. S. is able to provide the desired amounts, though England will be of some help. And arms are expensive.

General Bradley has said, in effect, that promises to liberate small countries on some unknown future date after a devastating war are not enough. A strong defense line, he went on, must be built and maintained in constant readiness in Europe. This was interpreted to mean that the Chief of Staff of the Army believes American troops, no less than American weapons, must help to hold that line. Here again we run into serious problems of high policy—and grave problems of cost as well.

There are those who believe the pact should be implemented regardless of how expensive it may be. But some of the pact's best friends aren't so sure. Dr. Edwin Nourse, top economic advisor to the President, exploded something of a bombshell when he said that, in his opinion, the cost of supplying arms to Europe should be taken out of our domestic military budget. Dr. Nourse's reasoning is simple—he feels that the country is spending about all it can stand now for military purposes, and that heavy additional spending would endanger the soundness of the economy. However, the military leaders want more money, not less, for the domestic establishments.

The situation is further complicated by the current budget outlook. The recent drop in prices and business volume has cut into governmental income. Where, a fairly short time ago, it looked as if the budget for the next fiscal year would be in balance, and might provide a surplus, it now looks as if a deficit is sure. That deficit may be more than $5,000,000,000. Regardless of its size, if the government has to borrow, it will pile its borrowings on top of an existing $252,000,000,000 national debt.

It can be soundly argued that anything which might save the peace must be tried—that nothing can be so costly and so ruinous as war. Even so, turning a good theory into practical action can present enormous difficulties. That is true of the 12-power pact. The toughest part of the job still lies ahead.

Cancer Drive In Texas Will Cost 7c Per Capita

Can you afford seven cents a year to fight cancer in Texas?

That's what it would cost each Texan, if all Texans contributed to the 1949 membership and fund-raising drive of the American Cancer Society, Texas Division, according to Karl Hoblitzelle of Dallas, state campaign chairman.

The American Cancer Society's Texas goal is $450,000—money to be used for education, service, and research in cancer control.

"In addition to the seven cents per Texan, the number seven has other significance in Texas Cancer Control work," Mr. Hoblitzelle pointed out: "There are about seven needless deaths from cancer every day of the year in this state."

"In 1947 a total of 6770 Texans died of cancer. Last year's figures will prove to be higher. This year the total will be close to 7000. This in spite of the fact that between one-third and one-half of these deaths could be prevented with what we now know about the disease."

Mr. Hoblitzelle urged every Texan to contribute to the lagging April drive of the American Cancer Society.

"Curtailed of cancer control activities in this state is in sight unless more is contributed," he said.

Andrew B. Clements, dean, Albany Law School: "Civilization appears to be pushing religion into a more and more contracted corner of its daily life."

Wear Speech Highlights Junior-Senior Banquet

"The home in your future is the most important thing in your future," thus spoke Bob Wear of Hereford, Lions Club District zone chairman who was the guest speaker at the Junior-Senior Banquet held Saturday, April 30.

Toastmaster Joe Abbott introduced the following program:

Invocation: J. E. Miller.
Welcome: Mary E. Jennings.
Response: Billy Cleavinger.
Toast to Faculty: Don Hickman.
Toast to Room Mothers: Norris Root.

Music for the banquet was provided by the Girls' Sextet consisting of Betty Jean Schuette, June Chain, Fay Gunter, Sarah Jane Martin, Mary Ann Sloan, and Rebecca Irvine, which sang three selections: "Tumbling Tumble Weeds," "O My Darling Clementine," and "O Suzanna."

Before departing from the cafeteria to Randall Hall for the Prom, the Banquet was closed with the singing of the School Song.

The menu consisted of apple juice, baked chicken and dressing, giblet gravy, green beans, cranberry sauce, individual salad, hot rolls, butter, orange sherbet and angel food cake, iced tea, and mints.

The centerpieces for the tables were covered wagons while the candle holders were wagon wheels. Completing the Forty Niners theme, the favors were small nugget bags filled with gold mints and inscribed: Juniors-Seniors '49.

Decorations at the Prom followed the theme with patches of bear grass on the floor and a moon and stars suspended from the ceiling. Music for the Prom was by Bernie Howell and the trio.

IT MIGHT HAVE BEEN

Yes, the hind man in races at the interscholastic meets does not give up. He stays in the race until the end, even though he is yards behind. To quit is considered a disgrace!

What a wonderful thought! What a worthy attitude! Oh, for the power of transferring that quality to one's studies. Is it not also a disgrace to drop out of the running in the race for good grades during a winter's term? Can one ever enjoy the thought that he failed because he would not try. He would not stay in the race to the final end!

What a stigma to bear through life. Will not one's conscience rise up to haunt him thus. "You are a quitter. You are a softie. How can you ever feel that you deserve to be trusted when you quit in the thick of the fray?"

WEEK'S CALENDAR

Canyon Chapter of PTA Buys New Roller Skates for School

As a part of their interest in the extra-curricular recreation program, the PTA has bought new skates to add to those already in CHS. 14 new pairs with more to come, plus those already at the school, make 46 pairs to be used for skating by classes.

Repair parts were also included in the order. The skates arrived Monday, and more are expected within the next few weeks from the Chicago Roller Skate Company.

"Cultural" battle will be renewed at Paris congress.

Army builds a chamber that can produce absolute silence.

Limited world government proposed to prevent wars.

Sodom soon to resume supply of potash throughout world.

Soviet views hunt for Noah's Ark as imperialist spying.

The Fourth, Fifth, and Sixth grades will present the operetta, Tom Sawyer, Friday, May 6 at 9:45 in the morning at the grade school gym. The public is invited.

Here's the latest dope! And it won't put you to sleep.

Patsy Sanford has a new flame. He is a certain boy with blue eyes and beautiful blonde hair. How about this, Pat?

Some couples at the Junior-Senior Banquet were: Philip Busted and Mary Sue Foster, Norris Root and Donna Erwin, Marvin Cornette and Fay Dickerson, Bryce Slack and Ema Gene Zachry, Weldon Hacker and Sara Jane Martin, Billy Cunningham and Betty Jean Schuette, Travis Payne and Ava Dooley, Jerry Harding and Betty Kinsey, Golden Currie and Melba Stroup, Wayne Griffin and Mary Ruth Hill, and Janey Forester with Richard Walters.

Bertha Lindsey better known as "Bert" to some people, must have a secret admirer, anyway I heard that she received an orchid for her birthday from a certain boy named Gary.

Jimmy Lindsey is really getting around these days; first he goes to the Mahaka Dance with Bonita Brown, Friday night he is seen at the show with Mary Elizabeth Jennings, and Saturday he escorts Mable Graham to the Junior-Senior Banquet.

Annual Picnic Is All Day Affair For Canyon High

The annual all-school picnic is over.

A lot of sunburned students, faculty members, and parents are back on the job this week after a day in the Palo Duro Canyon last Friday.

Busses were loaded at the school and the group of picnickers were on their merry way. When they arrived at the seventh crossing, students began to scatter in every direction. Many headed for Devil's Slide, some played baseball and volleyball, and some just sprawled out in the shade of a tree to forget their worries.

Around 11:30, students began to trickle back to the crossing, worn out and hungry. Nearly everyone was content with playing horse-shoes, washers, and resting under the trees after a dinner of hot dogs, potato chips, pickles, onions, cheerios, cake, and soda pop was served.

Near-tragedy struck the group after dinner when Carlene Rogers, an eighth grader, was bitten by a rattlesnake. She, along with Donald McDonald, Tommy Gooch and Doris Keller, was on a hill near Devil's Slide when the accident occurred. Tommy Gooch ran to the site of the picnic for help while Donald and Doris rendered first aid. After more help was obtained and further aid applied by teachers and students, she was carried to the bottom and rushed to the hospital.

The doctors at the hospital were rather proud of the aid rendered and of the fact that they knew what to do. Carlene is now recovering at her home.

The busses were loaded and started on their way to school with a crew of kids and teachers, worn out after a day of sun, tan, excitement, and near-tragedy.

let was very, very on Inky Zachery. That new yellow blouse of Teddie Howell's is an eye catcher, isn't it? She always does wear the cutest clothes.

Johnnie Fay Bonds' black hair was really put in the spotlight by that lavender dress she wore Monday.

Oh, and how can that pink and blue plaid jumper of Barbara McDougal's ever be forgotten. The wide Empire waistline really whittled her already wispy waist. Her white thigh sandals were just the right touch to complete her ensemble.

And to stop Sue with a bang and a flash, that bright yellow and dark brown striped "T" shirt belonging to Mr. Barnett really does it. So long.

Five Homemakers Attend State Meeting In Dallas

FFA Members Honor Parents

Highlighting the Canyon FFA chapter's activities of the year is the annual Parent-Son Banquet to be held May 6, 1949 in the Canyon High School cafeteria.

Jerre Inman, president of the FFA, will act as toastmaster at this significant occasion honoring the parents of the Future Farmers of America.

One of the chapters mottoes will definitely be carried out at the banquet. It is "When we meet we eat." The menu is fried chicken, chicken gravy, mashed potatoes, green beans, tomato and lettuce salad, ice cream and cake.

Special guests of honor have also been asked to this event.

Busted Captures Letter First Place

First place in the letter writing contest about women coaching boys' teams was taken by Philip Busted of CHS. A prize of a five dollar bill was awarded Philip and his picture and letter appeared in the Amarillo Globe News, which sponsored the contest for members of the Kids Incorporated league.

Disadvantages and advantages of a woman coach were given by Philip. No slandering of women coaches was made. He stated that if a woman could coach a boys' team and get teamwork and success from it, he was all for it.

The letter was written during journalism one Monday, and the staff didn't expect Philip to even mail the letter, much less capture first place.

'49 Seniors Depict Kids of Yesterday

Sugar 'n Spice and everything nice. That's what little kids are made of. This was the theme of the annual Senior Kid Day last Thursday, April 28.

The Seniors turned the clock back into the days of their childhood which was many, many years ago and retraced their steps to golden memories.

Wanda Jean Edwards looked very "kiddish" in a pink dress with a bonnet to match. Mary Sue Foster went "tom-boyish" in a little blue playsuit. Foremost among the dollies carried by the little ones was a "Kupie" doll owned by Laura Davis and a Donald Duck clutch by "Inkie" Zachry.

Among the boys, Jerre Inman looked very intellectual (?) in horned rim glasses and a small red beanie and a red bow.

Black eyes were sported by Willis Parsons, Marvin Cornette and Jimmie Lindsey.

By the way, that streak breezing down the halls was Don Hickman on his wittle, red tricycle.

At the end of the day the little children were glad to go home and crawl wearily into their trundle beds.

Mopey Mollar Mulls Over Much Misery

I awoke one day, not last Winter either, feeling like a King except for a Payne in my Head. You Seay it was the day for the all-school picnic. I rushed bareheaded to the store for bread, Rice, and Peppard sauce. Sand was in the air and the wind blew through my Hair, though I was Dodgin all the time.

I saw a boy playing a Cornette and he looked so funny, I almost Busted my sides laughing when he Strouped over to read his music. My girl friend saw him, too. I thought it would Keller. The Cornette blew Moore and Moore until he turned Black in the face.

Off to the canyons, we finally reached the Campfield and decided to climb a White Hill to eat lunch which we tied on a rope with a Knott. One boy Holt on to it and we started to climb the Hardaway, but the Slack in the rope caused me to stumble over a Root or a Stone and I fell clear to Holland by the side of a Sorelle horse that kicked me so hard the Sparks flew.

We got back into the car and drove further down the road when the Wheelock. There we sat as if on a hot Cole. When we tried to fix it, we saw a Plant by the road which we took to be a Rose. I bent to smell it and it caught my Beard as a Martin and a Crow flew by.

In that position every one saw me: the Miller, the Baker, the Forrester, and even the Parsons, as we Potter Chain on the wheel after it was unlocked and we tried to Ford the Pond this side of the creek.

One girl of our bunch was lost and we had to Hunter. Then we came at last to the original Campfield for a Sample of fun. I'd bet even Money and Winn that we couldn't have won one single Ball game that day even if we tried Weeks.

CHS Band Rates Second Division

Jo Ann Mickey Achieves First Rating in Contest

The Canyon High School band received a second division rating in concert playing, and third division in sight reading at the annual West Texas State Band Contest. The band entered as a class D first year band. There were no first divisions given in this class, all other bands were given either third or fourth in class D.

Bands are not placed, as in sports, first, second, or third place, but are rated according to pre-set standards. To receive a first division rating a band must be nearly perfect in all respects. A second division band may have a few minor defects in its playing. All bands in a class could be placed in any one division if the judges see fit.

Jo Ann Mickey received a first division rating for clarinet solo in class three. The following people received division two ratings: Ardie Phelps, trombone solo, class two; Sherma Dixon, twirling, class one; Buddy Thompson, French horn solo, class three; Virginia Holt, flute solo, class three. Ann Holt received third division rate as a saxophone solo in class two. Class three solos are the easiest and may be played by elementary school people, classes one and two are for high school students, with class one being the most difficult.

The High School band attended the annual band clinic at West Texas State College last March in preparation for the contest, April 29 and 30.

Campfield Poll

Question: Will you be glad to see the Seniors of 1949 graduate?

Mickey King: If you gotta go, you gotta go, but just the same, I hate to see 'em leave.

Joe Abbott: All I've got to say is "You lucky stiffs."

Ruby Lee Bonds: We have to see some good people go.

Norris Root: We can't be seniors until they're gone.

Bertha Lindsey: Whose car will I use and who will I borrow money from?

Wayne Griffin: I'm proud to see anybody graduate!

Dorothy McReynolds: I hate to see them go but I think they're really lucky.

Peggy Bonds: No, absolutely NO! (Editor's Note: Willis Parsons won't be there.)

Betty Kinsey: I will be glad to see the seniors graduate, but I won't especially be glad to have them leave.

Melva Martin: CHS won't be the same.

Mrs. Simms: I shall miss the Seniors of 1949 greatly but progress and growth is necessary to life and I certainly do not wish to have any of the seniors fail.

Bruce Winn: I will be glad to see most of them go. I won't mention any names but one is Richard Walters.

Jo Parker: I'll hate to see them leave, but they'll probably be better off.

Berkeley SoRelle: I hope the one's that don't appear to be going to graduate will graduate. Especially Harry Campfield.

Billy Samples: No! Because I won't be able to write in the Campfield Poll any more!

Troy Burrus: Any one that graduates is lucky.

And from three seniors:

"We three men who probably won't pass

Hate to see the departure of this class.

Homemakers Honor Mothers With Tea

Mothers of the Homemaking III girls, and high school teachers were guests at a combination May Day-Mother's Day tea, Tuesday afternoon at three to four p. m.

Sandwiches, cookies and mints were served the guests as Melba Stroup and Bettie Schuette poured the punch. Purple iris were the centerpiece while pink, yellow, lilac and green pastels in the food and other flowers carried out the rest of the color scheme.

Almost all the girls who had modeled dresses in the style show wore them during the tea.

Mable Graham, Betty Ann Erwin, Mary Ann Sloan, Betty Jean Graham, and Donna Erwin will be representatives from Canyon High at the state meeting of the Future Homemakers of America, Texas Association, in Dallas, May fifth, sixth and seventh. Over 2000 representatives from 688 chapters will take part in the three-day rally of home-making students from junior and senior high schools in Texas.

Mable is president and Betty Ann is corresponding secretary of Area 1. The other girls were chosen from a point system in which points are given for various chapter activities participated in by the individual students. Mary Ann was highest in points, followed by Betty Jean and Donna, respectively. Mrs. Camille Bell, homemaking instructor, and Mrs. Walter Graham will accompany the girls to Dallas. Mrs. Bell, Mrs. Graham, Mable, Betty Ann and Betty Jean will leave Canyon, Wednesday at noon because of a special committee meeting and Donna and Mary Ann will leave Thursday, on a chartered bus with other girls and their sponsors from this area.

A program of recreation and general get-acquainted, in the Crystal Ballroom of the Baker Hotel, will start the three-day session off on Thursday night. Students from TSCW in Denton will lead the girls through a fun-fest.

Future Homemakers will meet in general sessions at the State Fair Auditorium, Friday. Main speaker of the morning will be Senor Roberto de la Rosa, Cultural Agent for the Mexican Government whose subject is "International Good Will." Senor de la Rosa is one of twelve "good will ambassadors" touring this country in an effort to promote better understanding between us and our southern neighbor.

Honor guest at the Future Homemaker banquet Friday night, in the Crystal Ball Room of the Baker Hotel, will be Mrs. Joseph M. Perkins, of the State Board for Vocational Education, from Eastland. She will speak on "Homemaking Hearts are Happiest."

Our representatives will start home Saturday at noon following the officers luncheon in the Mural Room of the Baker Hotel.

Box Supper Holds Amateur Show, Other Contests

In the amateur section of the box supper sponsored by the Senior class, Bertha and Jimmie Lindsey won first place by singing "Forever and Ever." A playlet, "Mayhem in the Mountains" with Norris Root, Troy Burrus, Joe Abbott and Mickey King participating won second place. A song, "You Can't Be True, Dear," and a poem, "Who Done It," won third place for Donald McDonald.

Stuart Condron from KGNC and a native Canyonite was judge of this contest.

Berkeley SoRelle and Betty Kinsey, juniors, took first place in the ugliest and prettiest girl contest.

Mr. Earl Burtz and Mrs. John Jennings, and Barbara Glanton and Eddie Henson, eighth grade, took second and third prizes, respectively.

Boxes, auctioned to the people by Richmond Hales, sold from $2.50 to $10.50 each. The money taken in Monday night at the box supper for the seniors will go toward funds for trip and a school gift.

Building Supply Store for Lumber, Sash, Doors, Mouldings, Roofing, Glass, Paints, Plaster, Cement, Wallpaper, and Builders Hardware. They are Now Specializing in the Building of Veterans Homes.

Being well aware of their responsibility toward the development of this community, these people have made an iron-bound rule of providing only the best possible grades of seasoned lumber and building materials. This policy has won for them an enviable name in the building circles throughout the territory.

With these factors in mind, it is little wonder that this firm enjoys a fine name with the building industry in this area. They are making a specialty of Veterans Homes also, and are therefore a very essential concern in this community.

The products offered here are by no means confined to lumber and hardware items alone, for in addition to the fine stocks of lumber and hardware they provide a complete line of accessory building items, such as sash, doors, mouldings, roofing, glass, paints, plaster, cement and wallpaper, in fact everything in the way of building materials.

The management of this progressive establishment is always happy to sit down and help you with layouts to material procurement programs for the new structure you may be planning. This factor alone is to a large extent the reason behind the popularity of this concern with the contractors of this area.

An examination of the success of any firm must always turn up these fundamental precepts: quality products, lowest possible cost, and those little extras in the way of service to the clientele. These same precepts have, and will continue to be, followed by this progressive business firm to the fullest extent. Without the slightest hesitation we can give our unqualified endorsement of the Munday-Cooper Co. to our readers. ADV.

Polio Cases Are Greatly Increased Over Those of '48

During the first seventeen weeks of 1948 there were only 55 cases of poliomyelitis reported to the State Health Department, while in this same period for 1949, there have been 142 cases reported from different sections of the State, according to Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer. Seven cases were reported in the past week, with three from one county.

"Poliomyelitis is one of the most dreaded of all diseases," Dr. Cox said, "and justly so. It is more often acrippled than a killer, but in either case it takes a heavy toll among young Texas citizens, and is a health menace against which our children should be carefully guarded."

Immaculate cleanliness of person and homes is urged as a precautionary measure against polio, and community hygiene assumes a place of major importance when the disease makes its appearance. Clean communities, clean homes, and strict personal hygiene all play a part in helping to prevent the spread of diseases, and Dr. Cox advises close inspection of home screens for keeping out flies, and unremitting efforts in rodent control, and the extermination of roaches.

"Until it is definitely understood just how polio is transmitted, it is well to guard against all household pests and eliminate all insanitary conditions," Dr. Cox said. "We do not know with certainty how polio may be spread, and filth, which affords a breeding place for germs, should not be tolerated."

Myriad Skills Used By Manufacturers In Building Cars

DETROIT—It takes blacksmiths, woodcarvers, physicists, locomotive engineers—in fact, more than 2,600 kinds of workers—to build modern motor vehicles, reports the February issue of Automobile Facts, monthly publication of the Automobile Manufacturers association.

Sharply increased employment and a wider variety of job means that opportunities for promotion are greater today than at any time in the industry's history, the publication says.

The million persons currently working in the plants and offices of U. S. motor vehicle, body and parts manufacturing companies represent an increase of about 50 per cent over 1947 and 100 per cent over 1929.

As companies build new plants and expand employment, more jobs open up in all pay levels, AMA pointed out.

"They need new foremen, more plant and departmental supervisors, more research specialists, more people in the higher-paid skilled trades."

"It also means expansion of such activities as medical, safety and employee-training programs—and more top jobs in such work."

"And all sorts of records must be kept on a much larger scale than when the company operations were smaller—so more employees and executives are needed in plant offices."

Of the 2,600 job classifications, approximately 10 per cent are on the final assembly line, which is made up of a vast variety of assembly operations.

Veteran Would Swap Medals For Apartment for Family

PITTSFIELD, Mass.—A 30-year-old air force veteran offered today to swap 20 war decorations which he earned on 65 combat missions for an apartment for himself, wife and two children.

John W. Rose, a repairman, ran a classified advertisement in The Berkshire Eagle, offering 13 air medals, six battle stars and a victory medal for either a furnished or unfurnished apartment.

He said that he and his wife had never had a home of their own since their marriage. They are living with his parents.

Chinchilla Ranch Proves To Be Profitable Hobby

SALT LAKE CITY.—Would you like a hobby that's a lot of fun, requires a moderate investment, little upkeep cost and it nearly self-perpetuating?

Then start a chinchilla "ranch" in your basement, garage or tool shed, says M. J. O'Donnell, who practices what he preaches.

For $1,000 the cost of one pair of the little South American rodents, you can be in business. For another $5 a year for upkeep you can stay there, O'Donnell says.

He ought to know. He has about 100 of the gold-plated little fur bearers housed in coop-like sheds of simple construction at his "luxury fur farm" on the outskirts of Salt Lake City.

"They cost no more to raise than ordinary rabbits," O'Donnell says. "You don't need a ranch. A small pen in the basement will do. Add a few carrots, some hay and a pan of water and you are in business."

He says the animals are exceptionally clean, require little space, no extra heat and each pair can be counted on to replace itself at least once a year. Sometimes as many as three litters a year are produced.

R. F. Gorman, secretary-manager of the National Chinchilla Breeders association, which has headquarters here for its 2,000 members, confirms O'Donnell's report on ease of raising the little animals.

"In comparison with rabbits, foxes, minks or even cattle or sheep, chinchillas are a heck of a lot easier to keep. The casualty rate is less than many other animals, and they need no special care."

Judge Holds Wives Have Right to Paint Homes

CLEVELAND, OHIO.—Judge Samuel H. Silbert denied a husband's request that his wife be restrained from further interior decoration at their Warrensville home.

The judge acted after hearing a domestic relations bureau investigator say: "The two rooms she redecorated are the best looking rooms in the house."

Peter T. Kunigonis, 35, an electrical engineer, went to court two weeks ago with a complaint about the decorating work of his wife, Betty, also 35.

The husband complained that his wife painted to annoy him. She said she'd been after him to do the job for several years and the house had become too drab for her to bear.

Coal Miners Have Big Record for Record Strikes

Last year, coal mining had more work stoppages and strike idleness than any other industry, according to a final resume by the Department of Labor.

The figures are worth reading. There were 616 stoppages in mining, of which 561 were in soft coal fields. Strikes resulted in a loss of 4.24 per cent of the total working time in the mining industry, as against an average of 0.37 per cent for all industry. Finally, stoppages of coal production caused nearly 10,000,000 man-days of idleness. Inasmuch as coal miners earn around $15 a day, the wage loss was somewhere in the neighborhood of $150,000,000.

It would be an impossible task to attempt to compute the total cost of strikes and stoppages in coal production. The miners' wages is one big element. So is loss to the operators who could not fill their orders. A protracted coal strike is felt in all the basic industries of the country — steel, electricity, automobiles, transportation—and makes the laying off of armies of workers unavoidable. The purchasing power of thousands upon thousands of families is cut, and that affects merchants, manufacturers, farmers and the people employed by them.

It is particularly significant that the worst strike record has been in the industry which pays the highest wages of any comparable enterprise in the world.

In late years, there have been few differences between the principal miner's union and management which could not have been settled fairly, through the established process of arbitration, without stoppages. The shut-downs represented the ruthless use of dictatorial power by union leadership. The cost to the miners, and to everyone else, was not considered. It remains to be seen if the disgraceful record of the past will be repeated in the future.

Tea Announces Approaching Wedding Date

MISS MARTHA NELL BURTON

Approximately sixty guests registered Sunday afternoon when Mrs. Nell Jarvis Burton entertained with an informal tea to announce the engagement and approaching marriage of her daughter, Martha Nell, to Walter B. Polk of Phillips, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter H. Polk, Winterville, Mississippi.

Guests were greeted by Mrs. Burton, Miss Burton, Mr. Polk, and Dr. and Mrs. E. R. Jarvis of Perryton, uncle and aunt of the bride-to-be. Miss Burton wore a black and white polka dot crepe and the three women in the receiving wore identical white carnation, tied with gold, corsages.

Miss Anna Lou Samuelson, Miss Barbara Beck, Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Jarvis of Lubbock, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Newell of Hereford and Mr. and Mrs. Tim Mueller of Amarillo composed the house party.

Graceful arrangements of bridal wreath decorated the house.

"Martha and Walter, May 27," written in gold letters formed the center for the serving table which was draped with a white organdy cloth edged with hand made Irish lace. Forming a background for the lettering was an arrangement of gold Dutch iris in sage green bowl with matching candles in crystal holders flanking the grouping. The silver coffee service and gold serving plates completed the table appointments from which the guests were served coffee or tea, ribbon sandwiches, gold mints, nuts and individual cakes topped with golden wedding bells tied with green to carry out the bride's chosen colors of gold and sage green.

Out of town guests included Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Jarvis of Lubbock; Miss Ann Gillham and Mr. and Mrs. Foster Mueller of Amarillo; Dr. and Mrs. E. R. Jarvis of Perryton; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Newell of Hereford; Jarvis Witt, O. W. Jarvis, Mr. and Mrs. Billy Jarvis, Britt and Jon, all of Stinnett; Mr. and Mrs. Woodville Jarvis, Carol Ann and Wesley of Spearman.

Rural Telephones Are Next Sought To Be Controlled

Inasmuch as there is now a well established Federal power monopoly in the United States which plans to extend its hold in every section of the country, it is not surprising to see a Federal bureau, namely, the Rural Electrification Administration, reach out to take on another industry—rural telephone communication.

The same type of destructive propaganda that is now being used to undermine confidence in our rural telephone system has long been used by public ownership propaganda against the private electric industry in the campaign to socialize it.

The irony of the situation is that as a nation we parade our accomplishments and virtues before the rest of the world. We show that our people have been given the finest electric service. We boast that the United States has more telephones than all the rest of the world put together.

In the face of this record of private enterprise, we complacently accept plans of politicians to socialize our industries and follow in the footsteps of our international neighbors who seek money and food and support from us because their socialistic governments cannot give their people the advantages which up to the present time have been enjoyed in the United States under a free enterprise system. There is no rhyme or reason in a Federal policy favoring socialistic objectives on the one hand, while on the other hand objecting strenuously to the extension of the socialistic regime which Russia offers the world. Is it possible that socialism or communism, which are synonymous terms so far as their ultimate effect on the individual is concerned, would be sweeter under United States commissars than they would under Russian?

The drive on rural telephones is the latest attempt to put subsidized government projects into further competition with private citizens. Everyone interested in preserving our American system should write their representatives in Washington to reverse the process now in vogue of glorifying socialism and big government and undermining confidence in private enterprise and independence.

When you bury the hatchet, do not let the handle stand above the ground for a marker.—E. B. Birkenbeul.

Too much Government relief held a danger to individual.

Dean Acheson, Secretary of State still has to meet his test in negotiation with the top Russian bargainers. hard on the surface but bendable under pressure.

BOYCE HOUSE

I see by the papers that the palatial home of the late Dr. John R. Brinkley at Del Rio is for sale.

Your columnist met the famous gland specialist twice. He was a handsome dresser, wore a huge diamond ring and was distinguished looking. He had a goatee.

The most striking feature of the home from the outside—I was never in the mansion—was a fountain. At night, different colored lights alternated in changing the water from purple to red to green to gold.

More than one tourist, returning from a round of beverages on the other side of the Rio Grande, thought he was "seeing things" and "swore off."

The fountain was said to have cost several thousand dollars.

It caused people to talk about Dr. Brinkley.

And that probably was the idea.

Dr. Brinkley moved to Del Rio from Kansas where he made a strong race for governor. He had had run-ins with some of the newspapers there. So when he was introduced to the then Del Rio editor, Dr. Brinkley said, "I don't think much of some newspapermen." The editor, himself a forthright kind of chap, replied, "That makes us even—I don't think much of some doctors."

The two got along well.

The son of Dr. Brinkley is now attending Yale. When he graduated from Del Rio High a few years ago, this columnist delivered the commencement address.

A philosopher once said, "Some men in public office grow; others swell."

And an expressive remark, after someone had made some strong statement is the one with which the speaker winds up his unfavorable comments, "That's Sears-Roebuck talk." Meaning, if anybody doesn't like it, he'll take it back.

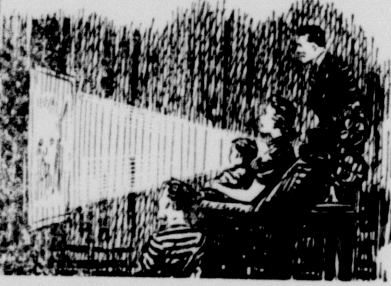

Initiative is a combination of brains and energy but blah blah and bustle can sometimes fool people.

Under freedom of enterprise — you may call it Democracy, or Capitalism — we make just about one-third of the world's goods, mostly for our own use. We drive three-fourths of the world's autos, use about half the world's electricity. Our homes are unrivaled for comfort and labor-saving devices.
